

Big Write Read - January 25th 2017

Parents of children from Y1 to Y6 visited classes to share their Big Write Books with them. Thirty one parents shared their feedback about the session. Here are some of their comments:

What did you learn about your child's Big Writing today?

- It was really good to sit with my daughter and let her show me her work which she was so proud of.
- Was lovely to see him putting his ideas on paper and trying so hard.
- I thought it was fantastic.
- Very positive.
- I liked the questions they are asked and the details they are asked to give.
- The writing they do seems really interesting for the children.
- I am very impressed with her writing.
- It's great to see the conversations we're having with our children put onto paper.
- His writing is more confident and improved.
- I enjoyed reading the Big Write today.
- His writing is very creative and he enjoys the variation.
- Very informative.
- It was very interesting to read and see the talk homework put in context.
- A really useful opportunity to see my daughter's writing. She was proud of her work and keen to show me her progress.
- Really pleased with what they are doing.
- It's good to see what she is learning and needs to know.

Did you notice any improvements or progress in your child's writing?

- I think the progress is excellent.
- His handwriting is looking very neat and more uniform.
- The content and his vocabulary has improved.
- She is very keen on writing and likes to practise at home.
- My son's handwriting has really improved.
